

Endangered Animals

Learn about threats to wild animals, and what the zoo (and you!) can do to help

Attending this session will help you work on the following badge requirements:

Girlguiding

Rainbows:

animal lover, nature, storyteller, drawing, healthy mind, construction, as well as skill builders such as make change, communicate, influence and Innovate.

Brownies:

mindfulness, inventing, charities, speaking out, as well as skill builders such make change, communicate, and influence.

Guides

conscious consumer, media critic, investigating as well as working towards skill builders such as influence and make change.

Rangers:

protesting, genealogy and skill builders such as Communicate, influence and make change.

Scouting

Squirrels:

go wild, feel good, get creative, and story time.

Beavers

global issues, explore, animal lover, builder, photographer, community impact, my world award.

Cubs

animal carer, global issues, communicator, artist, photographer, community impact as well as our world and our skills award badges.

Scouts:

environmental conservation, fundraising and world challenge award.

Explorers

naturalist, global issues, community impact and fundraising.

